1. A program of para-military training - the so-called "Izvonarmijska Vzgoja" - is being carried out by the mass organizations throughout Slovenia. According to source all these organizations have received orders to mobilize their members for this training. The Ljudska Tehnika, or People's Technical Service (LT), is very active and has arranged the most complete of all the para-military courses. Each of its sections, the Marine Section, the Radio Section, the MT Section (sic), has organized courses in partisan warfare.
2. Recently, also, mock air raids were held in Slovenia. In Ljubljana approximately 7,000 persons were organized into functional groups under the command of Army officers. The defense maneuvers were taken much more seriously in those areas which experienced bombings during World War II.

Comment: Your attention is called to [REDACTED] which reports on the formation of a military force composed of ex-partisans. [REDACTED] describes in greater detail air defense maneuvers in Ljubljana.
